

How to Respond to Events

Last Modified on 06/06/2025 11:27 am PDT

After you successfully enroll in an Event, you can access your Responses from the home page or the My Events page. If the Event or round has not yet begun, the Grit Test will email you when the event or round begins.

How to Respond to Events

1. After enrolling in an Event and that Event is open, access the Response phase from the To Do section of your home page or by clicking My Events on the top left.

8. On the pop up, click Cancel if you would like to retry and record again or click Save if you'd like to save the video to your Event.

9. After the video is saved, the Video Upload complete pop-up appears. Click Review Transcript to review and edit the transcript or click the Close button to save the response and return to that prompt. Now that the video is saved, you can click the Next button on the Response Saved section on the bottom to move to the next prompt or use the Next button below the video.

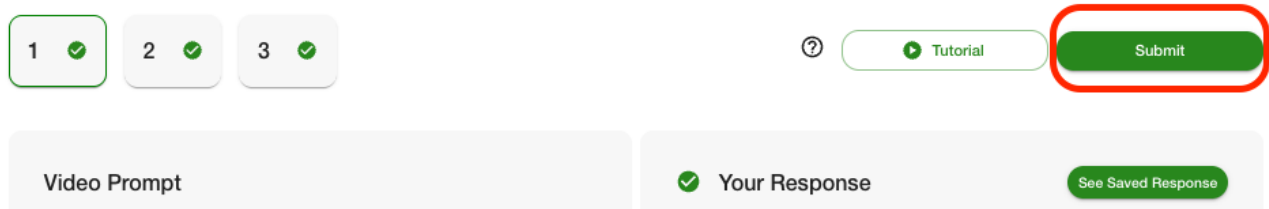

Please Note: After you save your response, you can view the Saved Response from the prompt page by clicking the See Saved Response button on the top right. You can re-record your Response using steps 3–9 above using the Record button.

10. Repeat steps 3–9 for every prompt.

Please Note: Before you submit your responses, you can navigate through each response using the buttons on the top left of the Prompts page or the Previous and Next buttons below your video recording. From there you can review past responses and record new ones.
